

(c) If the Administrative Council for Terminal Attachments chooses to continue the practice of utilizing a designated “FCC” number, it shall include in its labeling requirements a warning that the Commission no longer directly approves or registers terminal equipment.

(d) Labeling developed for terminal equipment by the Administrative Council for Terminal Attachments shall contain sufficient information for providers of wireline telecommunications, the Federal Communications Commission, and the U.S. Customs Service to carry out their functions, and for consumers to easily identify the responsible party and the manufacturer of their terminal equipment. The numbering and labeling scheme shall be nondiscriminatory, creating no competitive advantage for any entity or segment of the industry.

(e) FCC numbering and labeling requirements existing prior to the effective date of these rules shall remain unchanged until the Administrative Council for Terminal Attachments publishes its numbering and labeling requirements.

Subpart E—Complaint Procedures

§ 68.400 Content.

A complaint shall be in writing and shall contain:

(a) The name and address of the complainant,

(b) The name (and address, if known) of the defendant against whom the complaint is made,

(c) A complete statement of the facts, including supporting data, where available, showing that such defendant did or omitted to do anything in contravention of part 68 of the Commission’s Rules, and

(d) The relief sought.

§ 68.402 Amended complaints.

An amended complaint setting forth transactions, occurrences or events which have happened since the filing of the original complaint and which relate to the original cause of action may be filed with the Commission.

§ 68.404 Number of copies.

An original and two copies of all complaints and amended complaints shall be filed. An original and one copy of all other pleadings shall be filed.

§ 68.406 Service.

(a) The Commission will serve a copy of any complaint or amended complaint filed with it, together with a notice of the filing of the complaint. Such notice shall call upon the defendant to satisfy or answer the complaint in writing within the time specified in said notice of complaint.

(b) All subsequent pleadings and briefs shall be served by the filing party on all other parties to the proceeding in accordance with the requirements of § 1.47. Proof of such service shall also be made in accordance with the requirements of said section.

§ 68.408 Answers to complaints and amended complaints.

Any party upon whom a copy of a complaint or amended complaint is served under this subpart shall serve an answer within the time specified by
